DELEBRATIONS IN THE MEETING

It was the Principal who discussed the agenda of the meeting to the dignitaries present over there. He elaborated the results of classes X and XII of last year and got approbation from members of VMC for having produced 100 per cent results in both the board classes. He also got applause from the members of VMC when he shared about 6 students who had acquired A1 grades in all the five subjects in class 10 last year. The second approbation was acknowledged when he shared about a few students of class XII of last year who had qualified to the JIPMER entrance examinations and got admissions. The remarkable victories in Sports & Games, painting and drawings, participation in the social science exhibition and prizes obtained in Co curricular activities of external/ internal (Young World Quiz) and a recent victory in the Cluster level meet of CMP were appreciated by VMC and wished the school to acclaim endeavors in future.

The plan of purchase of materials for the current year was highlighted to the VMC. The inadequate fund and discretion of power of principal to exercise expenditure was detailed to the members of VMC. The infrastructural development of the Vidyalaya was taken as a main yardstick in the deliberation. The new school building is almost in a concluding stage and the procedure of handing over and taking over of the building would be taken up in a month. The Principal has requested the VMC to provide technical support to construct 'school stage' worth of 25 Laks that includes the flooring area of assembly hall.

Celebration of Annual day was discussed in the meeting. During discussion, the VMC has reached a conclusion of celebrating Annual Day in the second week of January 2014.

SPARKLING IDEAS AND SUGGESTIONS OF VMC

Professor & Head of Tourism Department and a distinguished member of VMC, Dr. Yedla Venkata Rao was deeply concerned about adequate class room facilities provided to the students of the Vidyalaya. He was happy to learn that the school has got sufficient furniture and rooms to accommodate students of the Vidyalaya for the day to day transactions. He also insisted of a point of transformation of one or two classrooms into smart and e-classrooms which is the recent trend of modern schools. He was also resolute on one point that the school ought to strengthen the quality of students by taking adequate help from VMC and parents and teaching community of the school. The principal immediately promised that he would see to that aspect seriously.

The Superintending engineer of Pondicherry University and a distinguished member of VMC Sh. Gopalakrishnan suggested that the school should provide top priority to children who are sick in school hours. It was explained to him that the school had already constituted a committee whose services are to attend the children who are sick. Children with minor problems are treated in the sick room of the school and the major complaints are being taken to Health Centre of Pondicherry University under intimation to their parents- he explained.

A request was made to him specially to extend his support to mobilize the old furniture of University (unused) to Kendriya Vidyalaya -2 in order to meet out the shortage of furniture. He said that the matter should be taken to higher officials of Pondicherry University and Kendriya Vidyalaya had to send proper paper work.

The Assistant Professor Dr. Raja Ravi Verma , Department of Performing arts and the distinguished member of VMC had kept his suggestions to the panel of VMC. He reflected the impression of the parents for Open Day in a more ceremonial and formal way ie; the meeting is arranged in a single hall where teacher and parents meet and interact with each other and then reached to a comprehensive solution. The principal said that he would see the possibilities make arranging it in a hall.

He decorated the magnificent idea on ' Concentration Skills' to be imparted among students of X and XII. He suggested that it would enhance the memory power of children and help them to augment their concentration skills. He wanted to take 2 sessions by himself and would be instrumental in enhancing their memory.

Sh. Vinayathan, the Principal, Jawahar Navodhaya Vidyalaya, kalapet expressed his optimism that the present set of classes X& XII would bring better results and laurels in the board examinations.

VOTE OF THANKS

Finally the session was concluded with the vote of thanks proposed by the co curricular activity in charge and faculty Sh. P. Kannan.
